INDIANA ASSOCIATION FOR THE EDUCATION OF YOUNG CHILDREN (INAEYC)
RECEIVES RECOGNITION AS A PROUD BUSSINESS PARTNER OF INDIANA ADULT EDUCATION

INDIANAPOLIS, IN –The Indiana Association for the Education of Young Children (INAEYC) is proud to announce that it has been recognized as a Proud Business Partner of Indiana Adult Education, honoring its strong partnership with the Indiana Non-Formal Project.

This recognition highlights INAEYC's ongoing commitment to supporting Indiana's early childhood workforce by expanding access to high-quality professional development, credentials, certificates, degrees, and career pathways. Through its partnership with the Indiana Non-Formal Project, INAEYC has played a key role in strengthening adult education opportunities for early childhood educators across the state.

"We are honored to be recognized as a Proud Business Partner of Indiana Adult Education," said Dr. Hanan Osman, Executive Director. "This partnership reflects our shared commitment to empowering early childhood educators with the training, credentials, and support they need to succeed and to ensure high-quality learning experiences for young children and their families. This partnership exemplifies how collaboration between adult education and early childhood organizations can create meaningful pathways for educators."

The Indiana Non-Formal Project supports adult learners pursuing the Child Development Associate® (CDA) Credential, a nationally recognized credential that advances professionalism in early childhood education. Collaboration with Indiana Adult Education Programs helps align professional learning and technical assistance to meet the needs of educators at every stage of their career journey.

INAEYC remains committed to working alongside Indiana Adult Education and statewide partners to elevate the early childhood profession, promote access to credentials, and strengthen the systems that support educators and young children.
