Join Us in Championing the Future of Early Childhood Education

We're excited to invite you to be part of an inspiring community of early childhood professionals, thought leaders, and mission-driven organizations at the 2027 Indiana Early Childhood Conference, taking place April 2-3, 2027, at the Indiana Convention Center in Indianapolis. With rich content, dynamic sessions, and meaningful connections, it's a one-of-a-kind opportunity to engage with key stakeholders dedicated to positively impacting young children's lives

Hosted by the Indiana Association for the Education of Young Children (INAEYC), the conference is a central part of our mission to advance high-quality early learning for all children, birth through age eight. By supporting early childhood professionals through professional development, advocacy, and program quality initiatives, INAEYC helps ensure that Indiana's youngest learners have the strong foundation they need to thrive.

For over 50 years, the Indiana Early Childhood Conference has brought together passionate, purpose-driven professionals—educators, directors, advocates, and more—committed to giving children the best start in life. You'll meet over 2,500 attendees eager to grow, collaborate, and build lasting partnerships.

As we gear up for another unforgettable experience, we want to thank you for considering joining us on this journey. Your presence and partnership help build a thriving platform where innovation, collaboration, and a shared commitment to early education come to life.

Whether you're a returning partner or new to our community, you'll be joining a powerful movement to uplift Indiana's youngest learners. We'd love for you to be a part of it. Exciting opportunities await in our 2027 Sponsorship & Exhibitor Prospectus.

Let's grow early childhood education —together.

Hanan Osman, Ph.D.
Executive Director, Indiana AEYC

Exhibitor Information

Booth Requirements
All exhibit(s) must be designed and displayed to conform to the size of the space leased. Displays may not obstruct the view of, or interfere with, the exhibits of others. Aisles, lobby areas, and exits must be kept clear at all times. Exhibitor demonstrations must remain within the boundaries of the booth space purchased. Exhibitors may not alter the location of exhibits or booths. Exhibitors may not assign, sublet, or share space already assigned without the permission of Indiana AEYC.

Indiana AEYC Compatibility
All exhibit displays and materials must be compatible with developmentally appropriate practices as defined by the Indiana Association for the Education of Young Children Inc. (Indiana AEYC) and the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC). Indiana AEYC reserves the right to prohibit or remove any exhibit or refuse the submission, distribution, or display of artwork that may detract from the general character of the exhibition as a whole. This includes persons, objects, printed materials, souvenirs, artwork for conference materials, or anything of a character that Association management determines to be objectionable or detrimental to the exhibit or incompatible with Indiana AEYC or NAEYC. In the event of such restriction, refusal, or petition for removal, Indiana AEYC is not liable for any damages or loss of business. Nor will it refund rentals or other exhibit expenses.

Code of Conduct
Exhibitors must agree to abide by the Exhibitor Code of Conduct found at https://inaeyc.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/07/Code-of-Conduct.pdf.

Cancellations
Payment is non-refundable and non-transferable. Once a booth is reserved through payment, exhibitors are committed to the number of booths secured and agree to be present during the designated exhibit hours.

Join us in shaping Indiana's future—one child, one educator, one partnership at a time.
